Special Guest

President Bo Fleischman introduced Elizabeth Flavelle & Bruce Erskine, representatives from the 22 Division Community Police Liaison Committee (CPLC), who presented an informative overview of the Toronto Police Service. The Service was founded in 1834 and is older than both New York and Boston. It is the third largest police force in Canada, after Mounties and OPP.

The CPLC is a conduit from the community to the police, holding fundraisers and community meetings. A Townhall Meeting is planned for February 9, 7-9 PM at the new Police College, 70 Birmingham Street.

Elizabeth and Bruce encouraged us to get involved by signing up for the 22 Division newsletter and the link to community safety updates. Call 416-808-2100 or email: Ted.Mands@torontopolice.on.ca.

$ HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS $

- Reg Balls will be 91 on February 11.
- Clarke Mills has the PDF format to send Board Minutes via email. Copies will be available at the meetings.
- Bev Best played Wii Health with his grandchildren and was rated as a 43 year old!
- Bo Fleischman is pleased that we support 98 Key Club members at Father Redmond. Our $3,000 donation to Global Medic sent 2 water purification units to Haiti and was featured in the Guardian newspaper.
