

May 30, 2011 Meeting Highlights

$ HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS $

- Barnaby Ross is back from Boston where he attended his daughter's graduation ceremonies at Harvard. She is off to Africa, so it will be awhile yet before she starts paying him back.
- Bill Lejbuk announced a cruise sale. Bookings will include $100 donation to Kiwanis.
- Alberta Craft is happy that a stair lift is being installed at their house tomorrow.
- Reg Balls attended a dinner at Highfield School. The teachers told him that the children have been constantly singing "Que Sera Sera", which he taught them.
- Dan Gallo was pleased to get a parking space today - because someone left.
- Don Hughes recognized Norah's birthday. She delivered him to the door today and John Dods will take him home.
- Katherine Irwin's granddaughter, Michelle, graduated with a Master of Education degree. She has been accepted at OISE for the Ph.D. program with a $100,000 scholarship.
- Frank Sgarlata is pleased that his hernia operation was a success. The Shoudice Clinic is a great place.

The Key Club governor gave a great speech. Ken Hanson received the Spirit of Service Award. He is the light of Key Clubs in the GTA. The Blue Mountain Convention was flat out fabulous!

Community Service

On The Cover

Six baskets were donated by members of Kingsway Humber and SINAWIKS. No club funds were used. We were part of the Basketeers Program that takes place every Christmas to send baskets to women and children in shelters. Our six baskets were selected to go to Home Suite Hope Shelter in Halton.
