

May 9, 2011 Meeting Highlights

Announcements

- Arthur Scauzillo reported that he and Frank Sgarlata presented pins to members, introduced the new Father Redmond Key Club executive and thanked out-going executive at a special event at the school this week.
- Frank Sgarlata encouraged members to attend the AGM on May 30. Committee chairs will give their reports and elections will take place. Secretary, Gillian Dugas, will be stepping down as program chair.
- Gillian Dugas announced that the back pack presentation at Highfield Community Breakfast was a great success. A large number of children were in need of these items.

$ HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS $

- Bev Best is happy to be back from Florida. They had fun when Gillian and André Dugas came for a visit.
- Clarke Mills is happy to be in his new digs. He attended a wedding where the ring bearer threw the ring to the couple.
- Frank Sgarlata will be visiting New York on June 16-21. He is glad his surgery on May 24th will be well over by then.
- Don Fleet is happy to be back from his phenomenal Danube River cruise. It rained one night only and it was a great learning experience.

Special Guests

Arthur Scauzillo circulated a picture of the Father Redmond Key Club, featured in the Etobicoke Guardian newspaper. He also introduced Christine Keen and Susan Longo, staff advisors, who thanked our club for all the support and the luncheon.

Father John Redmond Key Club outgoing president, Sandra, reported that the fundraising award they received was a great honour. The funds went to help the organization called War Child. The club also won the Strive for Five award for attracting new members. They currently have 112 members from grade 9 to grade 12.

Sandra thanked our club for the $2,000 donation towards their breakfast program at the school. The current “grab & go” breakfast will be expanded to a full breakfast when the kitchen is ready. Arthur thanked Sandra for naming the breakfast club in honour of Kiwanis.

Frank Sgarlata thanked Christine and Susan, giving them credit for getting the Father Redmond Key Club off the ground.
