

December 13, 2010 Meeting Highlights

Announcements

- Bill Stuart reported a productive and enjoyable day with Bev Best, selling Christmas product at the Sun Life Centre. He thanked Ted Scott for his careful and accurate accounting and attention.
- Frank Sgarlata thanked everyone for all their volunteer hours. We were able to report to Kiwanis International that we have completed 430 hours on projects and 130 hours on fundraising.
- Frank also thanked Gillian and André Dugas and Bob Craft for organizing the Christmas luncheon and thanked Arthur Scauzillo for storing our maple syrup.

$ HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS $

- Alberta Craft is happy the cast is off her foot and she is now wearing shoes.
- Bev Best is very pleased with the sound of our Anthem today, thanks to the help of our guests drowning out the members!
- Dan Gallo is pleased that Joanne reminded him to report their 30th Anniversary, which was two weeks ago.
- Margaret Rutledge is pleased that Harvey's youngest daughter, Carolyn, is with her today and that her granddaughter passed her music exam.

Special Presentation

Lt. Governor Mark Brewer inducted new members Andy Kyriaskos and Bill Lejbjuk. Mark stated that Kiwanis serves in 90 nations, changing the world one child and one community at a time.

Andy is an Etobicoke resident who has a 14 year old son. He is a political assistant and volunteers with the Children's Aid Society. Andy is thrilled to be joining our club to impact the community and the world.

Bill lives in Etobicoke and has three sons and wife, Jenette. Since his retirement from the City of Etobicoke he has worked in the cruise business. Bill expressed his enthusiasm for working with our members on a satisfying mission in Kiwanis.

Christmas entertainment was enjoyed with singing and games led by singer Debi Sander Walker and musician Don Wynn. The party was a great success!
