Special Guest

President Bo Fleischman introduced Limara Furanetto, from The Tim Horton Children's Foundation. The Foundation helps disadvantaged youth to create a better future. It started in 1974 with the Tim Horton Memorial Camp in Parry Sound. Today there are six camps across Canada, helping 14,000 children in 2009 alone. A bursary program gives support for post secondary education.

Fundraising includes the Tim Horton Camp Day on June 2. Coffee sales on that day raise 9 million dollars. The coin boxes in stores generate $8 million.

Limara read a moving letter from a man who attended the very first camp and how it influenced his life in such a positive way.
