Special Guests

We enjoyed a very special performance by Jonathan Elliotson on trumpet accompanied by pianist, Sonya Sim and singer, Cait Wood.

Jonathan shared his insights into his Music Festival experience. In 2012 he placed first in the local, the provincial and the national levels of the Festival! At the Provincial competition he connected with the Festival staff who took great care of him. The Kiwanis competition had a huge influence, giving him both exposure and experience. At the Nationals in Fort MacMurray he was treated like family by the Festival staff he had met at Provincials. The Kiwanis Music Festival gave him a wonderful chance to make connections, practice his passion and make new friends. He thanked Kiwanis for how much they take care of the competitors. He is currently in his second year studying music at the University of Toronto.

Bev Best thanked all three performers saying, "I can see why you have done so well." Bo Fleischman presented each with a bottle of syrup, saying, "it is as pure as the harmony and as sweet as the tones you produce." Mary Margaret MacInnes wished all three performers great success in their musical careers.
